

3rd International Conference on TAXPAYER RIGHTS

Amsterdam, Netherlands • May 3-4, 2018

SPONSORS

The Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) is an independent organization within the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). Our job is to ensure that every taxpayer is treated fairly and that you know and understand your rights. As an independent organization within the IRS, we protect taxpayers' rights under the Taxpayer Bill of Rights, help taxpayers resolve problems with the IRS, and recommend changes that will prevent the problems.

In 1938, the International Bureau of Fiscal Documentation (IBFD), was established as a small centre staffed by four researchers. The purpose of this bureau was to supply information concerning (the application of) tax law and to stimulate the development of tax science. From that day, IBFD has steadily grown into what it is today: the world's foremost authority on cross-border taxation. Employing over 70 research specialists from over 30 countries, IBFD is the pre-eminent, independent (non-profit) foundation that tax practitioners from all over the world rely on for high quality independent tax research, international tax information, education, and government consultancy.

Founded in 1970 as a nonprofit organization, Tax Analysts is a leading provider of tax news and analysis for the global community. More than 150,000 tax professionals in law and accounting firms, corporations, and government agencies rely on Tax Analysts' in-depth federal, state, and international content each day. Tax Analysts has the industry's largest tax-dedicated correspondent staff, with more than 250 domestic and international correspondents.

Participating Sponsors

Founded in 1939, the mission of the ABA Section of Taxation is to serve over 19,000 members and the public by providing education about taxes and tax systems, and by providing leadership to support the development of an equitable, efficient, and workable tax system. Through continuing legal education programs, publications, and analysis, the Section of Taxation conveys information on the latest administrative, judicial, and legislative developments concerning federal, state, and international taxes and assists its members in successfully navigating the constantly changing landscape of tax law.

The American Tax Policy Institute, a section 501(c)(3) organization, promotes and facilitates non-partisan scholarly research analysis and discussion of U.S. federal, state and local tax policy issues. It supports cutting-edge scholarship in law, accounting or economics that will aid policy makers and administrators and improve our tax system. ATPI provides support for roundtable discussions and conferences to further its mission and bring attention to important and timely tax policy issues.

The International Fiscal Association (IFA) is the leading non-governmental, international organization dealing with tax matters. IFA has approximately 12,500 members worldwide from 110 countries, of which 66 have national branches. The USA Branch is one of the largest IFA branches, with nearly 1,000 members, divided into 18 regions. IFA USA provide its members the opportunity to not only keep up to date on current issues and planning techniques, but also to meet experienced tax experts from other countries, to strengthen professional relationships, and to rekindle friendships.

The American College of Tax Counsel is an organization that recognizes excellence in the practice of tax law. It promotes discussion and examination of tax policy issues and it encourages and advances tax scholarship.

International Association of Tax Judges

The IATJ shall promote the exchange of views and experiences on matters submitted to Tax Judges around the world, including information on the organization and functioning of Tax Courts or Tribunals and the rules of law in jurisdictions worldwide. The IATJ shall collect, correlate and circulate to its members information relating to tax treaties, VAT, best practices, procedures and policies on tax justice, reports on significant case law; analyze the judicial systems and tax jurisdictions by country; develop a framework for E-justice and generally act as a forum for judges to share information, knowledge and an exchange of their views.

taxanalysts