

The National Taxpayer Advocate of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service is convening the fourth International Conference on Taxpayer Rights on May 23-24, 2019, in Minneapolis, Minnesota. The conference is hosted by the University of Minnesota School of Law and sponsored by Tax Analysts, with technical assistance by

The National Taxpayer Advocate of the United States Internal Revenue Service is convening the 4th International Taxpayer Rights Conference on May 23-24, 2019. The 2019 conference will be held in Minneapolis, Minnesota, and is hosted by the University of Minnesota School of Law with technical assistance by International Bureau of Fiscal Documentation (IBFD) and sponsored by Tax Analysts and American College of Tax Counsel (ACTC).

The 2019 conference will explore the role of taxpayer rights in the digital age, and the implications of the expanding digital environment for transparency, certainty, and privacy in tax administration.

Panel discussions will focus on the following and more:

- Taxpayer bills of rights around the world, and the foundation of taxpayer rights in human rights;
- Taxpayer rights and establishing global common standards;
- Big data, privacy and tax administration;
- Impact of administrative guidance on taxpayers; and
- The role of “whistleblowers” in tax administration.

View the full agenda.

CONFERENCE RATE

$315

Register Now!

www.TaxpayerRightsConference.com

“Taxpayers’ problems are almost the same all over the world. The International Taxpayer Rights Conference has been a great chance to brainstorm a shared way to solve them.”

– International Conference on Taxpayer Rights participant